SORTABLE
DATABASE

Based on feedback from school leaders, KASC has taken the updated Kentucky Academic Standards and reformatted them in four ways (Checklists, Card Strips, Academic Standards Comparison, and Sortable Database). The easier-to-use formats allow the standards to be used in a variety of ways for different purposes.

As content areas are approved by the Kentucky Board of Education, KASC will add those academic standards to the bundle to make this subscription a must have resource for your school.

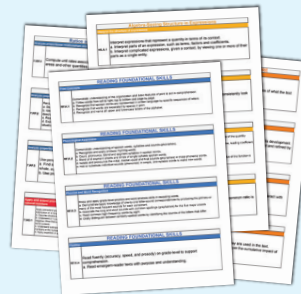

CHECKLISTS

Format:

- electronic use
- ready-to-print, if a hard copy is needed
- reading & writing, math, science, PE, health, social studies, technology, arts, & computer science

The checklists make it easier to analyze existing units or assessments, for planning, or any task that involves accessing the standards quickly.

CARD STRIPS

Format:

- one standard on each card strip, ready-to-print
- domain, cluster, and code included with each standard
- color coordinated by domain
- reading & writing, math, & social studies

The card strips are perfect as hands-on manipulatives for sorting standards or planning cross-curricular work. Suggestions are included for easy ways to use the card strips with students, as well.

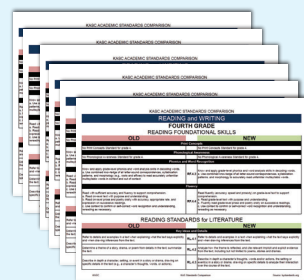

SORTABLE DATABASE

Format:

- standard with the domain, cluster, and code
- reading & writing, math, science, PE, health, social studies, technology, arts, & computer science
- Excel

The spreadsheets make it easier to organize standards for lesson planning, reviewing units, and creating assessments.

COMPARISON

Format:

- two column comparison of old standards and new standards
- domain, cluster, and code included
- reading & writing, and math

The comparison document allows for identifying and understanding the changes in the standards.
