

The LOUISVILLE WRITING PROJECT

invites you to....

a Virtual Administrator's Academy
for Instructional Leaders

Argument writing is THE tool for success on assessments, for college-and career-prep and for citizenship.

Will your students be ready??

Join your Colleagues for Professional learning...

Designed for instructional leaders who seek to improve schoolwide argument writing instruction and accelerate student achievement. EILA credit available!

3 sessions for 1 participant, $200

Additional participants, $100 each

Targets for the Academy:

Commentary

Session 1

Nov. 17.
9-12 Eastern

- Review current schoolwide successes/challenges
- Investigate KDE's revisions of the on-demand assessment to focus on argument
- Experience engagement strategies for digital learning

learning

Call to Action

Session 2

Dec. 8
9-12 Eastern

- Delve into developing the argument: define argument moves & explore evidence-based instructional strategies
- Explore using formative assessment to plan for next-steps instruction and to monitor and ensure student growth

Session 3

Jan. 12
9-12 Eastern

- Identify differentiation techniques & ways to support special education students
- Develop professional learning session(s) for staff

Registration for the Virtual Administrators' Academy

Name: _____ Position _____

District: _____ School _____

Address: _____
Street City State Zip

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Additional Participants from Same School:

Name: _____ Position _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Name: _____ Position _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Name: _____ Position _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

First Participant $200 □ ____ Additional Participants @ $100 = $_____

Total: $_____ P.O Number _____ Check # _____

Email to linda.mcfadin@louisville.edu OR fax to (502)852-4634 OR mail to

Jean Wolph, Louisville Writing Project Director
CEHD 240E University of Louisville
1905 E. 1st Street Louisville, KY 40292

For questions about the program, please contact
Sheryl Block, LWP Coordinator of Professional Learning, srbloc01@louisville.edu or call (502) 645-1140.